Application for Exemption from Disqualification

AUTHORITY: In accordance with section 413.208(2)(f), Florida Statutes, persons disqualified from employment with a service provider registered with the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation may be granted an exemption from disqualification. The granting of an exemption does not change an individual's criminal history. It only provides eligibility for employment by a provider registered to provide services pursuant to section 413.208.

An individual seeking an exemption must demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that an exemption from disqualification should be granted. The application will be reviewed and a decision made once all relevant documentation listed below has been received.

A person may be eligible for an exemption from disqualification under section 413.208(2)(f) for:

- Felonies for which at least 3 years have elapsed since the applicant for the exemption has completed or been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court for the disqualifying felony;
- Misdemeanors prohibited under any of the statutes cited in sections 435.04, 413.208(2)(e), or under similar statutes of other jurisdictions for which the applicant for the exemption has completed or been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court;
- Offenses that were felonies when committed but that are now misdemeanors and for which the applicant for the exemption has completed or been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court; or
- Findings of delinquency. For offenses that would be felonies if committed by an adult and the record has not been sealed or expunged, the exemption may not be granted until at least 3 years have elapsed since the applicant for the exemption has completed or been lawfully released from confinement, supervision, or nonmonetary condition imposed by the court for the disqualifying offense.

A person applying for an exemption who was ordered to pay any amount for any fee, fine, fund, lien, civil judgment, application, costs of prosecution, trust, or restitution as part of the judgment and sentence for any disqualifying felony or misdemeanor must pay the court-ordered amount in full before he or she is eligible for the exemption.

Persons designated as sexual predators, sexual offenders or career offenders are not eligible for an exemption from disqualification.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

The following items must be included with this Application for Exemption from Disqualification:

- Arrest reports for each offense listed on the criminal history report. The arrest report is a detailed narrative that explains the reason for your arrest. Arrest reports may be obtained from the law enforcement agency (police department, sheriff's office, etc.) that made the arrest.

- Court dispositions for each offense listed on the criminal history report. Court dispositions may be obtained from the clerk of the court in the county in which you were arrested. The disposition is the court document that states what you were actually sentenced for and the conditions of your sentence.

- If you were given probation or parole, you will need a letter from the probation or parole department with the following information required for each offense: the date you started probation or parole; the date you are scheduled to terminate probation or parole; if you are eligible for early termination of probation or parole; if you have violated probation or parole; and if so, what was the violation.

- Signed statement: Please write a detailed statement on each arrest explaining why you were arrested. You must include the victim's age and relationship to you and the sentence you received (probation, jail, prison, etc.). If your offense was related to theft, please include the item(s) and the approximate value of the item(s) stolen.
Please make sure you sign the statement and have it notarized.

- Provide 3-5 letters of reference. One reference letter must be from a current or recent employer on the employer's letterhead. Other letters must be from individuals you have known for at least two years through contact at the workplace, community activities, education, or training centers. Individuals providing a letter of recommendation should include their name, address and telephone number for verification or possible interview.

- Documentation of rehabilitation. Rehabilitation includes successful completion of a court-ordered treatment or counseling program, educational or training certificates, proof of participation in community activities, special recognition or awards received.

 Pursuant to § 837.06, F.S., whoever knowingly makes a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead a public servant in the performance of his or her official duty shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in § 775.082, F.S., or § 775.083, F.S.*
