Supporting Documentation Requirements

The Center must maintain all supporting documentation and all documents must be available for inspection by DOE/DVR upon request.
Periodically, DOE/DVR will randomly select transactions and will request all supporting documentation for these transactions to ensure compliance with cost reimbursement procedures.
Supporting Documentation
Requirements

All expenditures must represent an actual cash outlay.

The Center must be able to document actual expenditures, and provide invoices, receipts, copies of agreements and/or leases.
Types of supporting documentation to be maintained
Supporting Documentation – Payroll

- Names
- Social security numbers
- Copies of payroll stubs
- Timesheets signed by the employee and Center documenting the number of hours worked or time spent on the DOE/DVR program by these employees.
- Agreements with providers for any and all benefits provided to employees.
Fringe Benefits should be in accordance with the Center’s adopted policy and supported by invoices showing the amount paid on behalf of the employee, e.g., insurance premiums paid.
Supporting Documentation - Expenses

- Tangible personal property of a non-consumable nature that is $1,000 or more per unit.
  - Receipts and cancelled checks documenting actual payment of any nonexpendable property must be maintained.
  - All such property purchased under this Agreement shall be listed in the property records of the Recipient.
  - All such property purchased under this Agreement shall be inventoried annually.
Supporting Documentation - Expenses

- Title (ownership) of all non-expendable property acquired with funds from the Agreement shall be vested in the DOE/DVR.
- At no time shall the Center dispose of non-expendable property purchased under this Agreement except with permission.
- A formal agreement amendment is required before purchase of items of non-expendable property not specifically listed.
Supporting Documentation - Contractual

- Documentation shall include:
  - receipts
  - documentation with hourly rate times
  - the hours billed/worked from the vendor from which professional services were received
  - cancelled checks and
  - any such agreements entered into for professional services and
  - agreements for any services provided, including leases for, but not limited to, facilities, equipment, and maintenance.
WHAT YOU CAN DO TO EXPEDITE THE PAYMENT PROCESS?

- Submit properly completed invoice with all supporting documentation and deliverables within 30 days following the end of the billing period
- Sign up for direct deposit transfer
